

SOCIAL THEATRE[®]

Social Theatre utilizes a collaborative writing process to brainstorm, evaluate, and practice ideas to establish plays. Social Thinking[®] concepts are intertwined into script writing and each group meeting.

www.socialtheatreblog.wordpress.com

Group Goals

- To create a space where kids, teens, and young adults can feel comfortable working together.
- To rehearse appropriate behaviors in social situations.
- To brainstorm and accept others ideas in writing scripts and plays.
- To enhance confidence through feeling validated.
- To provide a performance opportunity, which can help decrease anxiety.

Summer and Fall Sessions available

groups: 3rd-5th grade, Junior High, and High School.
Weeknight and Saturday sessions

Group created and lead by Shawn Amador, LCSW, a winner of the Heartspring Innovation and Creativity in Special Education award, as well as a presenter at the Social Thinking[®] Providers Conference in 2016.

6040 STATE ROUTE 53 SUITE B LISLE, IL 60532 P: 630-524-4000
www.coreconnectioncc.com